

ENFIELD NUT NEWS

January 2015

The General Election will be held on Thursday 7th May 2015 and it will be a watershed moment for education in England and Wales.

The NUT launched its Stand Up For Education Campaign during 2014 with the Manifesto for Education as the centerpiece – a powerful statement of what we believe are the priorities and policies for schools and education in general that the next government must take on board.

We strongly urge all Enfield NUT members to get involved and express their views not only by voting on polling day itself but by taking part in one of the

1. Support and endorse the Manifesto for Education by adding your name to the growing list on the NUT website at www.nut.org.uk/manifesto

You can also order additional copies of the manifesto by emailing manifesto@nut.org.uk.

2. Attend the Rally for Education on Tuesday 10th February at 6pm at NUT Headquarters, Hamilton House Woburn Place WC1. You can confirm your attendance by emailing manifesto@nut.org.uk
3. Take part in the Lobby of Education and join a group of fellow teachers lobbying our local Enfield MPs and other candidates standing for Parliament. This will take place between 26th January and 6th February either here locally or in Parliament itself. If you are interested in taking part, email office@enfieldnut.org.uk.
4. Give an hour or two to help out at a Weekend Street Stall in one of the Enfield Town Centers or leafleting at a school gate. We held a number of these events over the last year and there was an excellent response from local parents and residents. If you are interested in taking part, email office@enfieldnut.org.uk.
